

About Patricia T. Cataldi:

- 50-year resident of Webster
- Served on the Town Board for 8-years; 2-years as the Deputy Supervisor
- Liaison to the Finance Department, Police Department, Information Technology Department and Conservation Board, past liaison to the Fire Council
- Served 4-years as a Village of Webster Trustee
- Village of Webster Planning Board Member for 6-years
- Served on Town and Village Committees: America's Best Communities, Webster Community Center, Chamber of Commerce Case for Business
- Director of the Village Business Improvement District (BID) for 4-years
- A leader in forming the Webster Economic Development Alliance through the Case for Business Committee
- Accomplishments as Town Councilwoman include: contributing to the First Responders Park, Playground and Spray Park, expansion of the Webster Public Library, acquisition of land from Xerox and the construction of the new Community Center, remodeling of the Van Ingen Court Building, and the current renovations to the Webster Town Hall
- Supported quality services for Webster residents while maintaining a stable tax rate
- Community Service: Board of Directors Breast Cancer Coalition of Rochester since 2008, Board Chair for 6-years, Chair of the ARTrageous Affair, the Coalition's annual fundraising Gala for 8-years
- Received the 2012 New York State Woman of Distinction Award; recognized by the New York State Senate and the Hon. Michael Michael F. Nozzolio for service to the Town of Webster and The Breast Cancer Coalition
- New York State Registered Dental Hygienist
- Member of St. Paul's Church and the Williamson Conservation & Sporting Club Family Member
- Family includes husband Richard, daughter Dr. Jessica Cataldi and son-in-law Dr. Matthew Leroue